ACAA Applauds the Atlanta Business League for Naming Bob Fornaro CEO of the Year

The Air Carrier Association of America (ACAA) congratulates Bob Fornaro, president and CEO of AirTran Airways, on being named CEO of the year by the Atlanta Business League. The CEO of the Year Award is given out annually to the CEO of a major company in Atlanta which gives back to the community.

Just a few of the accomplishments that Bob and AirTrain Airways have made in Atlanta range from working with babies (March of Dimes), kids (CHRIS Kids), education (UNCF and Junior Achievement), homelessness (HOPE ATL and Samaritan House), women (PADV and YWCA), kids and sports (YMCA), leadership (Leadership Atlanta) and many other fine organizations.

Upon accepting the award on behalf of AirTrain Airways and its 8,500 crew members Bob presented a $25,000 check to the Atlanta Business league so they could further their work in Atlanta.

Mayor Shirley Franklin was in attendance at the awards ceremony and was also honored for her work in the community.
