LaHood Confirmed as Secretary of Transportation

Former Congressman Ray LaHood has been officially confirmed as Secretary of Transportation. As Secretary of Transportation, LaHood will oversee the nation's critical transportation system, including the aviation and airline/airport industry, that is so important to individuals and communities throughout the country.

Edward Faberman, Executive Director of the Air Carrier Association of America (ACAA), issued the following statement on LaHood's confirmation as the Secretary of Transportation:

“The ACAA would like to congratulate former Congressman LaHood on his confirmation as Secretary of Transportation. We applaud his interest in expanding aviation opportunities and his goal of strengthening the aviation industry. As steps are taken to make this happen, the nation's economy will be strengthened. The ACAA and its members look forward to working with Secretary LaHood to address the many critical issues facing the industry. We hope that we will be able to meet with him and his team in the near future to discuss issues impacting our members and the communities they serve.”
